

FCNL Grassroots Advocacy Training: Lobbying to End the War in Afghanistan

Senators Schumer and Gillibrand could be key to ending US military involvement in Afghanistan, and they need to hear from constituents on the issue. Jim Cason, Associate Executive Secretary at the Friends Committee on National Legislation, will be coming to 15th St. Friends Meeting on June 25th to share how New York residents can play a critical role in the campaign to end the war. Participants will learn widely-applicable skills in how to write effective messages and plan effective lobby visits to their members of Congress.

New York Quarterly Meeting Ministry and Counsel Committee is offering this workshop, open to all members and attenders of the Quarter.
